

Sunday mornings at 8am

Holy Communion (said, from the Book of Common Prayer) is celebrated in the nave. The service lasts about half an hour.

Sunday mornings at 10am

Parish Communion services last just over an hour.

There is a toilet at the back of church & an area with toys & books near the front.

Children are always welcome at services, but due to a lack of people available to lead activities for them, we aren't able to provide regular groups for children on Sundays at the moment. Children's activity packs are available, and many activities for children take place on other occasions, as listed in this flyer.
